Thanks for the edits! I had re-found Rebeccah's email with all the lit she found at about 3:45 yesterday afternoon so I had sort of hunt-and-pecked for aldicarb depth info without reading much of the surrounding context. I think the labels are really the most important pieces of guidance here anyways.

See drafted response on incorporation depths using the sources Rebeccah found last week, and the proposed label for reference. Edits welcome (by COB tomorrow).

Rebeccah/Jeana – I am not sure where we left off with this. Can you please draft a written response for RD/HED on the depth to incorporation? Please let me know if we can get a response to them this week. Thank you. - Monisha

This is mostly for Kelly, but I thought that others might be interested in the details of what I found since the BEAD coordination on RD topics. (I had read these earlier and forgotten about them!)
